Great Investment 0.84 acre ready to build land, located off Austin Conolly Drive in East End. The property has a working deep well with pump which will need to be located, and is 15 feet above main sea level. The land has soil and solid rock which will give you a strong foundation building your dream home or investment properties. It is also a great property for farming. The property also, have a slave wall which is historical. Awesome investment.
